University	Website
J. F. Oberlin University  桜美林大学 J. F. Oberlin University J. F. Oberlin University is a vibrant, internationally minded university where students from a wide range of cultures and backgrounds learn together. Students can create a flexible course of study based on their interests, choosing from fields such as liberal arts, business, global studies, the arts, and sports. The university also provides Japanese-language support after enrollment, along with advising and other services to help students feel secure and supported throughout campus life. Our staff will be happy to answer your questions and address any concerns you may have about attending university, including what you can study after enrollment. Please stop by our booth on the day of the event.
Kanto Gakuin University  K G U 関東学院大学 KANTO GAKUIN UNIVERSITY Creating the Future through Community-Engaged Education in Yokohama A new admissions pathway for students with international backgrounds will begin in the 2027 academic year. Founded in the international city of Yokohama 142 years ago, with roots tracing back to the Yokohama Baptist Theological Seminary, the university has a long tradition of education grounded in the local community. To help students develop the ability to think independently and take action—skills essential for the future—we provide practical learning opportunities in partnership with businesses, local governments, and community organizations. By incorporating opportunities for students to apply the knowledge and skills they gain while working with people from diverse backgrounds, we nurture their ability to help shape the society of tomorrow.
Globiz Professional University  学校法人 深堀学園 グローバルBiz専門職大学 Globiz Professional University Located in Kawasaki, Kanagawa Prefecture, our university is just a one-minute walk from both Keiyo Kawasaki Station and JR Kawasaki Station. We welcome many international students, as well as students with international backgrounds. Through practical study in business, English, and media, students develop the skills needed to succeed in a global environment. Our comprehensive admissions process places greater emphasis on the applicant as a person than on academic scores alone. Applicants are evaluated through a statement of purpose and an interview. Come visit us at an open campus event to learn more about the atmosphere, facilities, and programs we offer. We also provide a wide range of university-funded, non-repayable scholarships. We offer an environment where you can pursue your goals and turn your ambitions into reality. We look forward to welcoming you to our campus.
Tokai University  東海大学 Department of Global Studies Students in Tokai University's School of International Studies share a willingness to take the first step and try something new. They learn by expressing their own ideas, listening carefully to others, and respecting one another. Through this process, students develop the ability to turn differences into personal strengths. The school offers a wide range of study programs in Japan and abroad, as well as fieldwork and project-based learning opportunities. Students and international students from diverse backgrounds and with different perspectives come together in an environment where they can inspire one another and grow. Our faculty members are equally diverse, with expertise in a wide variety of languages and cultures. Portuguese- and Spanish-speaking students will also be at the fair. Please feel free to stop by and ask them about university life, classes, training programs, and more.

Temple University, Japan Campus Temple University, Japan Campus (TUJ) is the Japan campus of Temple University, whose main campus is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in the United States. With campuses in Tokyo and Kyoto, TUJ offers a highly international learning environment where students from more than 90 countries and regions study together. All classes are taught in English, allowing students to receive an American university education while living in Japan. Students can study abroad at Temple University's main campus in the United States, its Rome campus in Italy, or at partner universities around the world through exchange programs. Upon graduation, students receive the same degree awarded by Temple University in the United States. Graduates go on to pursue a wide range of paths, including graduate study overseas and careers with companies in Japan and abroad.

ASK Publishing  We are a publishing company that creates and sells learning materials for people studying Japanese. In addition to preparation books for the Japanese-Language Proficiency Test (JLPT), we offer a wide range of materials to support middle and high school students in their studies. You can choose from resources suited to your level, including books for building vocabulary and grammar, as well as materials for improving conversation and reading schools. Please stop by our booth and take a look at our materials. Feel free to talk to us about any difficulties you are having with Japanese or let us know what kinds of learning materials you would like to see. We look forward to meeting you!
Yabe Shokai Co. Ltd. Founded in 1960 as an authorized dealer for a fire safety equipment manufacturer, we specialize in the design, installation, and sale of fire protection equipment, including fire extinguishers, emergency exit signs, automatic fire alarm systems, and sprinkler systems. Under Japan's fire safety laws and regulations, this equipment must be installed in a wide range of buildings, including schools, factories, movie theaters, and elderly care facilities. For more than 60 years, we have served the local community as its trusted fire safety specialist, earning the confidence of many customers. Work involving fire protection equipment requires a nationally recognized Fire Protection Equipment Engineer license. We provide full support to employees working toward obtaining this qualification. As we continue to build on our experience and reputation, we remain committed to growing through strong technical expertise.

Organization Name	Website
JICA Yokohama JICA Yokohama is a regional office of the Japan International Cooperation Agency (JICA). Established in 2002, it serves Kanagawa and Yamanashi prefectures. Its wide-ranging activities include hosting training participants from developing countries, offering international cooperation programs for local residents, supporting people of Japanese descent overseas, partnering with businesses, and dispatching volunteers. The Japanese Overseas Migration Museum, located within the facility, introduces the history of Japanese migration abroad. JICA Yokohama also offers school groups educational visits and learning materials that make international cooperation more accessible, as well as consultations on international career opportunities. Please stop by our booth to learn more.
Multicultural Education Network Kanagawa (ME-net) Certified Nonprofit Organization ME-net works to build an inclusive, multicultural society where children and young people with international backgrounds can live as themselves and lead independent, fulfilling lives. In partnership with the Kanagawa Prefectural Board of Education, we hold high school admissions guidance sessions at six locations across the prefecture from September to October. We also produce a multilingual guidebook on entering high school and distribute it to every junior high school in Kanagawa. In addition, we dispatch multicultural education coordinators and support staff to 31 public high schools—28 prefectural schools, two Yokohama municipal schools, and one Kawasaki municipal school. Working closely with each school, they provide a variety of support to students. We also offer educational consultations, advice on residency status, and Japanese-language learning support classes at four locations. For more information, please visit the ME-net website.
ABC Japan Nonprofit Organization ABC Japan was founded in 2000, primarily by Japanese Brazilian residents of Tsurumi Ward, Yokohama. As an organization rooted in the foreign resident community, we work in partnership with local governments, schools, support organizations, and other relevant institutions to help foreign residents in Japan live independently, safely, and with peace of mind. We place particular emphasis on children's education. Our activities include operating a free school, providing after-school programs in schools, running after-school study spaces for junior high and high school students, producing multilingual guides on school enrollment and further education, organizing the Education Fair, offering psychological counseling, and providing educational consultations in families' native languages.
Kanagawa Administrative Lawyer's Association We are administrative lawyers serving Kanagawa Prefecture. Today, we are available to answer questions about visas and Japanese nationality. Everyone's visa situation is different. For example, children with a Dependent visa generally cannot work after graduation while remaining on that visa status. Students with other types of visas may also have questions such as: "Can I do the kind of work I want?" "How can I continue living in Japan long term?" or "What do I need to do to become a Japanese citizen?" Please feel free to speak with us about any of these concerns. At today's Education Fair, you may be thinking about what kind of school you would like to attend and what you would like to study. We encourage you to think about your visa status at the same time. We look forward to meeting you at our consultation booth.
